Landcare in the Greater Sydney Region

Madeleine Florin, the Greater Sydney Regional Landcare Coordinator with the Greater Sydney Local Land Services, will paint a picture of Landcare and Bushcare across the Greater Sydney region. She will discuss the partnerships and collaborations and some highlights from Landcare across the region.

Prior to starting her current role 18 months ago, Madeleine worked in communications and community engagement roles for organisations advocating for regenerative agriculture (Soils For Life) and agroecology (ILEIA - Centre for Learning on Sustainable Agriculture in the Netherlands). Madeleine has a farming systems research background and has worked on research projects in Australia, Brazil and Mozambique.
